

Freitag, 24. November 2017,
11.15 – 12.45 Uhr

Universitätshauptgebäude,
Universitätsplatz, HS 218

Organizer: Prof. Dr. Gabriele Linke,
Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik
(gabriele.linke@uni-rostock.de)

Lecture Series "Canada 150"

Invitation to the 6th lecture, by

Gesa Mackenthun

(Universität Rostock)

Storied Landscapes: Indigenous Oral Testimony in Canadian Land Rights Cases

The lecture looks at the specifics of orality as an indigenous historical medium, at its usefulness in the context of legal conflicts about territory and environmental protection in modern Canada, and at the function of 'storied landscapes' as what Salman Rushdie has called „imaginary homelands“ in selected cases of recent First Nations art and literature.

